Day 1

Arrival & Orientation: Guests arrive at the meeting point in the morning. Our coordinator will welcome the group, conduct a comprehensive briefing covering route, safety, equipment checklist, and expected difficulty. After briefing we begin transit to the trek/start point. Lunch will be arranged en-route based on pickup location. Afternoon: light acclimatization, short local walk, and further briefings. Evening: Dinner at the campsite/homestay and an extended Q&A; session with the trek leader about the route and expected timings. NOTE: This route reaches higher altitudes. Guests must carry warm clothing, stay hydrated, and follow altitude-sickness precautions. Guides will monitor acclimatization and may modify the itinerary for safety.

Day 2

Trek/Explore Day: Full day dedicated to trekking/exploration. Start early after breakfast with a detailed route plan. Includes planned acclimatization breaks, packed lunch on the trail, and multiple photo-stops at scenic viewpoints. Arrive at the campsite/homestay in the afternoon, followed by short local cultural interaction (village visit / local guide talk) or optional activities like waterfall visit depending on the route. Evening: dinner, campfire where permitted, and storytelling by the guides. NOTE: This route reaches higher altitudes. Guests must carry warm clothing, stay hydrated, and follow altitude-sickness precautions. Guides will monitor acclimatization and may modify the itinerary for safety.

Day 3

Final day — Return & Departure: Early breakfast followed by the final segment of the trek/return transfer to the pickup point. Guests will be transported back to the drop-off city (time varies). There will be a formal debrief, feedback collection, and distribution of photographs (if included). The tour concludes on arrival at the drop-off location in the late afternoon/evening. NOTE: This route reaches higher altitudes. Guests must carry warm clothing, stay hydrated, and follow altitude-sickness precautions. Guides will monitor acclimatization and may modify the itinerary for safety.
